

Good Housekeeping

Dr. Phil wants you!

Win

Enter our contest
Be on his show!

What your bedroom says about your marriage

A Survivor's Story

GEENA DAVIS

BEST BARGAINS FOR YOUR HOME

Save lots on sofas,
rugs, pillows, more

THE ONLY VITAMINS YOU REALLY NEED

How to Handle
RUDE RELATIVES

Our 12 Favorite
Chocolate Desserts

Bad times. Big mistakes.
How the star turned her life around with the love
of a (much) younger man
...and babies at 50!

$2.50 U.S. $3.50 CAN./FOR.

Best deals in decorating

We've got it all—pages of price-worthy picks, great giveaways, and instant inspiration for your home. Start here, with the secret places designers shop.

IN STORES

IKEA “The Malm bed looks high-end, but it’s inexpensive and transitional.”

—BRAD FORD, Brad Ford ID

* ANTHROPOLOGIE “Its whimsical accents can lighten up (or add glamour to) a room.” —RINAT LAVI, Rinat Lavi Interiors

VERMONT COUNTRY STORE “This old-fashioned shop is great for classic accessories.” —ANGELA ADAMS, Angela Adams Design

ON THE WEB

EURWAY.COM “The site is a fun resource for innovative, affordable furniture and accents.” —ERINN VALENCICH, founder of Omniarte

FREDFLARE.COM “The prices are great, and it has loads of stuff you never knew you needed.” —TODD OLDHAM, Todd Oldham Studio

ARTAFAX.COM “It has a selection of clocks that I can’t live without.” —ERINN VALENCICH

“GET THIS LOOK FOR LESS WITH IKEA’S JENNYLUND CHAIR, $229, AND PIER 1

IMPORTS’ NORTH BAY ENTERTAINMENT CENTER, $650.”

—SHERRY AKBAR, GH decorating editor

